porter in Mrs. Walter J Barron, who was the beginner of the movement in the district. Mrs. Baron is the chairman of the Committee on Municipal Affairs of the Chiropean Club, and it was through her efforts that the club became interested in the question.

At a meeting held a short time ago the sum of 200 was appropriated by unanimous vote for the use of the public playgrounds, and it was decided to expend this money in preparing one playground for the use of the children during the coming summer. In recognition of the aid extended by the

The War Fund Committee of the Daughters of the Revolution, State of New-Jersey, has sent a Jersey Volunteers, at Camp Cubn Libre, Jackson-ville. The box contained useful articles and all sorts of good things to eat not obtainable in camp. In addition to these, seventy-five pounds of tobacco and three hundred briarwood pipes were for-warded. The delight of the seldlers will be in-warded. The delight of the soldiers will be in-creased when they open the packages of tobacco to find a label bearing the inscription: "Our Boys, 2d Regiment, from New-Jersey Daughters of the Revolution."

The War Fund Committee, as now constituted, is composed of Mrs. Andrew W. Bray, Summit, Re-gent State Society, ex-officio chairmen; Mrs. John R. Ditmars, East Orange, treasurer; Mrs. G. W. King, Mrs. Robert Ward, Mrs. James Trimball, Mirt Gertrude Lydecker and Miss Carrie Benson.

DURING VACATION. The Brooklyn public playgrounds for the children, which received a successful trial last year, will be opened again next month, and remain open during the months of July and August. In the Eastern District of Brooklyn the endeavor to establish the playgrounds has found an ardent sup-

mer. In recognition of the aid extended by the club, this playground will be called the Chiropean. A special committee has now been formed by the club to take charge of the work Among lis members are Mrs. J. H. Darlington, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. A L. Brown and Mrs. J. Coleman Adams.

Mrs. Barron when seen at her home, No. 461 Bedford-ave, by a Tribune reporter gave the following facts relative to the work:

"The playground which will be opened under the auspices of Chiropean is a lot 100 by 100 feet at Harrison-ave, and Ruticiage-st. The lot was given by William P. Sturgis, of No. 148 Hooper-st., and the women feel grateful to him for his generosity in the matter. Not only did he donate the ground, but he has aided in the work of putting it hout he has aided in the work of putting it has a board and affection of her girks. There is a cabinet confidence and infection of her girks. There is a cab for us to begin. This playground will be opened to the children on July 5, and will remain open for two months, which period covers their vacation from the public schools. The grounds will be kept open all day, from 8 o'clock in the morning till 7 LAWN PARTY TO BE GIVEN UNDER FTS

The "hit" of the afternoon was "the musical sheet." An immense canvas had been secured for the occasion, upon which the staff and clef were painted, while openings were made for the halfnotes, through which six young women, transnotes, through which six young women, transformed into Africaus, put their heads and sang as occasion required. The half-notes were represented by the Misses Anna o'Neil, Harrist Stanley, Helen Spreckel, Mirkum Bromberg, Estelle Franklin and Amy Singleton. The same young women responded to an enesie with a scene, "Cotton Pickin," in which a number of plantation melodies were introduced. A tableau, "Come, Buy My Flowers," was tollowed by the closing triumph, "Columbia," flag draped and stately, during whose statuesque pose the entire society sang with fervor "The Red, White and Blue."

At the close of the entertainment light refreshments were served.

**NEWS OF THE DENVER BIENNIAL**

Denver, Col., June 21.—The dark horse has appeared in the race for the presidency of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Within twelve hours there has been a decided turn of affairs, and the name of Mrs. W. B. Lowe, of Atlanta, Ga., president of the Georgia Federation, is on the light of every one. Though not known far beyond the borders of her State, she is declared to be fitted in every way for the high honor. The president of the Denver Women's Club, Mrs. Sarah Platt, could have had the office if she wanted it, but she stated positively to-day that she would not accept the nomination. If her decision remains unchanged, the West will go solidly with the South, and a large pertion of the East, with the exception of the concrise that still support Mrs. Alice Ives Breed, of Boston, will follow suit. Mrs. Ellen Henrotin, by virtue of her present effice, is non-committal in the matter, but Mrs. Platt, who may accept the nomination for vice-president, maintains that the South needs the impetus that the honor would give it.

the matter, but Mrs. Flatt, who may accept the nomination for vice-president, maintains that the South needs the impetus that the honor would give it.

At break of day enthusiastic promoters were buttornoling the women. The noted corridors and street corners are simply througed with clubwomen and on every train come eager delegations. By night it is estimated that two thousand out-off town clumwomen will be enseanced in the hearts and homes of Denver housesses.

As preliminary to the programme, the work today is being deveted to a little of everything, from securing credentials to chatting over cups of tea. The plans for the comfort of guests are evidenced at every turn, and the visitors are greatly pleased with the practical test of the hospitality for which the women of the West are noted.

The meeting of the council, which includes the State presidents. State chairmen of correspondence and officers of the General Federation, was held noon with an animated discussion relative to the raising of dues. During the last four years the present president has assumed the heavy expenses of her position, which obligation, it is hoped, will be done away with.

One important move is the effort to curtail the feminine proclivity to talk. The rule is that no woman can talk more than once en a matter nor louger than three minutes.

Fraternal organizations, such as the suffrage societies and the Daughters of the Revolution, keep open house for their sisters.

Social affairs are being held every hour in the day, an important one being a lunchoon this moon by Mrs. James Walker to Mrs. William Tod Helmuth, of New-York. Among the conspicuous delegates is Mrs. William J. Bryan, of Nebraska.

Yesterday afternoon there was a joint meeting of Siate presidents and State Federations, "The Coordination of Educational Forces" and "The Income of General and State Federations." The affair was a perfectly informal one, there being no invited guests and no guest of honor. The June sociable is generally reserved for a gathering of the members, "just to get acquainted," and each acts as a personal hostess. Yesterday Miss Isabel Irving. Miss Evangeline Irving and Mrs. H. C. de Mille, all new members, made their informal entrée into the club and were cordinally welcon-ed.

The House Committee will now take charge of the rooms and dismantle them for the summer, but they will be left open for the use of members who may remain in town.

WHAT THE "FLORENCE" IS DOING FOR HOMELESS AND NEEDY ONES.

"Now that the country girls are flocking to the city, the charitable homes are being taxed to their utmost," said Mrs. Underhill, the matron of the Florence Home for Working Girls, to a Tribune reporter yesterday. She added that calls are made at her home constantly by homeless girls, who have neither friends nor money, and who beg to be taken in even for a night.

The Florence Home occupies two stories and & half of A. W. Dennett's building at No. 140 East Fourteenth-st., and Mr. Dennett gives the rooms rent free. It is sometimes confounded with the Florence Mission, but is a different work, though both are memorials to little Florence Crittenton. The Florence Mission is a rescue work, while the Florence Home is for respectable girls who are looking for employment or who are working at low salaries. Mr. Crittenton has established fifty-two rescue missions in different parts of the United States, but only one "Florence Home." He pays all bills which cannot be provided for from the receipts for board. There is accommodation for sixteen boarders, but many have to be sent away because of lack of room.
